Refunds:

Residence Permit Issues

If a student who has applied for a residence permit from his/her home country is not granted a residence permit before the induction, the deposited tuition fee, less a DKK 2,000 administration fee, will be refunded.

If a student who has applied for a residence permit from Denmark is not granted a residence permit two months after the induction, the deposited tuition fee, less a DKK 2,000 administration fee, will be refunded.

Any refund request must be submitted at the latest 90 days after study start. In case the student does not file a refund request, they lose the right to any prepaid deposits to Niels Brock Copenhagen Business College.

Withdrawal prior to study start

Students who fail to attend Induction (no-show students) will automatically be withdrawn from the programme unless the student has previously informed Niels Brock Copenhagen Business College in writing of the reasons for not attending.

Refunds will only be given to students who have given written notice 30 calendar days prior to induction (dmenrolment@brock.dk).

No show students

No-show students who do not submit notice will lose the right to any prepaid deposits to Niels Brock Copenhagen Business College.

Withdrawal after study start

There is no refund for students terminating their enrolment after the beginning of the semester.

Withdrawal prior to 2nd semester

Students wishing to terminate enrolment prior to 2nd semester must notify the administration in writing to dmenrolment@brock.dk prior to 1 January 2020 for 2nd semester. If no written notice has been received on above mentioned date of deadline, the student is liable for payment of that semester fee.

Additional services:

Please note that some services are subject to a surcharge.

- Replacement of student card: DKK 50

Attendance:

Students must be active and therefore attend all classes in the study programme.

Please note that Niels Brock Copenhagen Business College is obligated by law to report inactive students to the Danish Immigration Authorities and as a consequence your residence permit may be revoked.
